Local Real Estate Leadership Installed

Bend, OR. December 12, 2017: On December 8, 2017 the Central Oregon Association of REALTORS® (COAR) installed the 2018 COAR Board of Directors. At the event COAR installed Bill Bellamy of Coldwell Banker Dick Dodson in Madras as President. Additional members of the Executive Committee include: Anthony Levison of Windermere Central Oregon as President Elect, Jack Zika of Bend Premier Real Estate as First Vice President, Carolyn Bostwick of eXp Realty as Past President and Debra Gisriel of eXp Realty as Treasurer.

The executive committee represents a broad range of COAR's geographic area as well as the demographics of REALTORS®. In 2018, the COAR board will focus on providing professional development to the membership, playing an active role in protecting private property rights, upholding the professional standards of the National Association of REALTORS'® Code of Ethics and providing the most accurate market data to the community.
