Held on an annual basis, the Central Oregon Association of REALTORS® Open House Weekend is a great opportunity for sellers, buyers just starting the home search process and buyers that would like to view many homes in a short time frame. This year, over 300 homes will be on Open House June 3-4 throughout Central Oregon.

The housing market in Central Oregon right now is very competitive. The ability to market your home to the most number of buyers is essential to getting the right sold price. As a buyer, the opportunity to see as many homes as possible in a short time frame can help decision making and get those offers in before your next home is sold. Finally, if you are just starting to look at homes and may not be ready to fully commit, visiting open houses is a great way to see what your budget can get in this market and set your expectations.

So, how can you participate? Contact your agent to make sure your home is on Open House for the weekend, visit COAREALTORS.com and you can search for a REALTOR®, or search for Open Houses based on your criteria. Be sure to look in The Bulletin's June 3rd issue for details on many of the open houses for the weekend.
