BEND, Ore. - In 2014, the Central Oregon Association of Realtors® was able to donate directly to 10 area non-profits and organized members for several volunteer activities.

COAR donated to: Backpack Buddies (Redmond and Madras), Circle of Friends, the Holiday Partnership in support of the Woodgrain Mill families, LaPine Community Kitchen, the Latino Community Foundation, OSU-Cascades, Project Connect, Redmond Golfers for Scholars and Tough Enough to Wear Pink.

Additionally, COAR organized two Blood Drives, volunteers for Project Connect, a Habitat Build Day, over 50 Thanksgiving Turkeys for Salvation Army and volunteers for the Kid's Zone at the Deschutes County Fair.

"Realtor® members, offices, appraisers and affiliates of the association strive every single day to provide donations to the community as well as participate directly with the many organizations that work to benefit the Central Oregon region," according to COAR President Elect Dave Feagans.

COAR members also donated over $250,000 and volunteered over 14,000 hours to non-profits in Central Oregon.
