COAR Installs New Officers

Bend, OR. January 4, 2016. On December 11, 2015 the Central Oregon Association of REALTORS® (COAR) installed their 2016 Board of Directors. Members of the Executive Committee include: Bill Bellamy of Coldwell Banker-Dick Dodson as First Vice President, Carolyn Bostwick of Windermere Central Oregon as President Elect, Scott Halligan of John L. Scott as Past President and Dave Feagans of Alpine Real Estate as President.

Before becoming a REALTOR® in 1999, President Dave Feagans spent sixteen years as a homebuilder in the Portland area. Prior to joining the COAR Board and Executive Committee, Dave served on a variety of committees including: Building a Better Central Oregon, MLS Executive, Grievance and the Public Relations committees. Additionally he has served the association as the MLS Tour moderator for the past several years.

Dave is the co-owner and principal broker at Alpine Real Estate since it opened in 2007. The company began with three brokers and has grown to nearly 20 over the past couple of years. He enjoys spending his free time with wife Judy and grown daughters Alyssa and Mallory. Moving to Bend in 2001 fit Dave's favorite activities of water skiing, climbing, camping and spending time with family and friends.

Dave exemplifies what COAR looks for in leadership: integrity, professionalism, high ethical standards and respect amongst his peers.
